

Preserving the History of Nuremberg's Streetcar

In 1976 our association "Friends of the Nuremberg-Fuerther Streetcar" (Freunde der Nürnberg-Fürther Strassenbahn) was founded by a handful of enthusiasts dedicated to preserving the history of Nuremberg's streetcar, at that time still threatened by looming abandonment. Today, we have more than 400 members, many of them volunteering in our various activities including our archives, creating and maintaining exhibits and historic vehicles as well as almost all aspects of operations. All our work is funded by donations, all contributions towards our association are tax deductible under German law.

The Exhibition in a former Car Barn

The Historic Depot St. Peter (Historisches Strassenbahndepot St. Peter) opened to the public in 1985 in a former car barn in the St. Peter quarter of Nuremberg. Numerous historic streetcars and countless original artifacts document the history of public transport in Nuremberg since its beginnings in 1881. Model streetcar layouts in different scales and our "Straßaboh Café" serving drinks and small snacks make for an enjoyable stay.

The Historic Depot St. Peter is open to the public on the first weekend (Saturday and Sunday) of each month except January. Hours are from 10 am to 5:30 pm.

Address: Schloßstrasse 1, 90478 Nuremberg

Rides on Historic Cars

Rides on our historic streetcars are available during the above mentioned opening hours times of the Historic Depot St. Peter. Travel on Line 15 around the old center of Nuremberg. Our conductors aboard will give information about the sights along the route as well as history about the streetcar itself (Sorry, mainly in German only).

Tickets are available either from the conductor or at the Historic Depot St. Peter.

Schedule:

Departs Depot St. Peter:	10:00 am through 5:00 pm (hourly)
